

The Book of Persuasion

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- Introduction
- Hard wired for survival

Part 1 - Persuasion in context

- Do persuasion skills matter?
- Are some people born persuasive?
- How logical are we?
- Heuristics
- Persuasion or manipulation?
- Bribery, corruption and lies
- Persuasion and integrity
- Trust
- Patience
- Preparing the ground
- Persuading Yourself
- Key Insights from Part 1

Part 2 - The tools of persuasion

- Providing choices
- Admitting you were wrong
- Negotiation
- Knowing the price of things
- Priming
- Confidence
- Consistency
- The power of paper
- Taking notes
- Write it down
- Social proof
- Forbidden fruit
- Scarcity
- Key Insights from Part 2

Part 3 - Persuasion techniques

- Change the order
- Reframing
- Differentiation
- Friendship
- Acknowledgement
- Asking for help

- Kindness
- Reciprocity
- Key Insights from Part 3

Part 4 - More persuasion techniques

- Tell a story
- Get them used to saying yes
- Contrast
- When you want them to say NO
- Ramping it up 1-2-3: the decoy method
- Persuasion by proxy
- Authority
- Charisma
- Charismatic people
- Key Insights from Part 4

Part 5 - Communication devices used for persuasion

- Humour
- The addictive power of laughter
- Your smile
- Modelling behaviour
- The hypnotic effect of mirroring
- Why the words you use matter
- The impact of the way information is presented
- Asking the right questions
- Ask permission
- Why arguing isn't always bad
- Key Insights from Part 5

Part 6 - Using senses to persuade

- The power of pictures
- The impact of body language
- To touch or not?
- The power of your voice
- Speaking
- Engaged listening
- The sounds of silence
- When does the herd change direction?
- Lets get to work
- Key Insights from Part 6